PLAINFIELD

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Jones at Hancock, on Tuesday evening, May 7, 1918, when their daughter, Miss Lora, became the bride of Emil Storzbach, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Storzbach, Sr., of Oasis. The bride was charming in a gown of robin's egg blue taffeta and net. They were attended by Miss Lena Storzbach, sister of the groom, and Russell Jones, brother of the bride. A bounteous wedding supper was served after which the happy couple autoed to their new home, which was in readiness for them on the groom's farm in Oasis. Both young people are well and favorably known by all, the bride being a graduate of the Hancock High school and the past year was bookkeeper and stenographer for her father and brother, E. B. Jones & Son, who have an extensive automobile business there. She is a young lady of pleasing qualities and numbers her friends by her acquaintances. The groom, a graduate of Plainfield High school and Madison agricultural department, is a young and progressive farmer of sterling worth. Their many friends join in wishing them a long and happy life.
