

ANN MARY STORZBACH

Ann Mary Storzbach, 70, Plainfield, died Saturday, July 1, 1989 at St. Joseph's Hospital in Marshfield.

She was born Aug. 7, 1918, to Albert Guzik in West Virginia.

She married Clifford Storzbach Sr. on Jan. 10, 1942. She resided in Plainfield since 1949. She had previously resided in Chicago.

Storzbach was a dietician at the Wild Rose Hospital.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by one son, Clifford Jr., of Barrington, IL; one daughter, Carol (Bruce) Slavlund of Rockford, IL; one brother, Leo; two sisters, Mildred Lashowski and Jean Terril, and five grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, one brother and two sisters.

Storzbach was a member of the Plainfield Golden Agers, the Plainfield Homemakers, and the Plainfield Zarah Chapter 56 Eastern Star.

The funeral was held Thursday, July 6, at 10 a.m. at the Gasperic Funeral Home in Plainfield. Friends called Wednesday from 6-9 p.m. The Rev. Ralph Deal officiated. A Masonic-Eastern Star service was held at 8 p.m. Wednesday. Burial was in the Plainfield Village Cemetery.